

Crystal Mountain - A Society for Eastern and Western Studies

Membership Application Form

Crystal Mountain is a non-denominational charitable and educational society registered in British Columbia in 1981. It was founded to promote the development of the wholesome, clear, interested mind through study, meditation, and compassionate work. Membership is open to anyone in sympathy with these objectives. Membership includes voting rights in the society with yearly paid dues. Members are encouraged to be actively involved with activities that support the objectives of the society. Membership is not required to participate in or to help organize any of our programs.
